Full details of rules, regulations, conduct, attendance, academic requirements, complaint procedure will be explained on Day One of the course and in the Student Orientation handout.

2. Fees

2.1 Course fees paid in advance to NZSFW are held in a Trust Account maintained by the Public Trust, an approved independent trustee owned by the Crown and overseen and managed by the New Zealand Government. This arrangement has been accepted by the New Zealand Qualifications Authority (NZQA) as meeting the requirements of the Education Act 1989 and the NZQA Student Fee Protection Rules 2013.

2.2 Indemnification of Student Fees

This Trust Account protects student fees in a number of situations including NZSFW being placed in liquidation or receivership, as well as student refund entitlements under the Education Act.

2.3 Fees are remitted to NZSFW from the Trust Account periodically in accordance with NZQA's Fee Protection Rules.

3. Payment of Fees

3.1 Students are required to pay course fees in full at least twenty working days before the start of the course. If fees are not received by this time, NZSFW reserves the right to withdraw the offer of place.

9. Immigration and visas

NZSFW may only enrol a prospective international student for a course lasting longer than three months if the prospective student holds a current student visa or permit. Details of visa requirements can be found at <https://www.immigration.govt.nz/new-zealand-visas>

10. Medical and Travel insurance

International students must have appropriate and current medical and travel insurance while studying in New Zealand. Students will need to provide NZSFW with evidence of their insurance policy documentation in English or purchase insurance from providers recommended by NZSFW.

11. English Language Requirements

International students, whose first language is not English, must provide evidence of their English Level.

12. Complaints Procedure:

Internal Procedure: NZSFW welcomes feedback and students should approach NZSFW staff with any concerns or issues, whether a complaint or an appeal against an assessment decision. If the student is not satisfied with the outcome, the student may appeal to the General Manager/Director. Appeals must be made in writing within 7 days. The General Manager/Director will then evaluate the case after discussions with the tutor. The matter may then be referred to the Management Advisory Board or the ITO responsible for the unit standard.

External Procedure: At the Director/General Manager's discretion, an independent evaluation or reassessment will take place e.g. by the NZSFW Advisory Management Board or someone appointed by the Director/General Manager. This evaluation will be full and final. No further appeals will be entertained by NZSFW.

If the student is unhappy with the system of complaint resolution or the outcome, a complaint can be made to NZQA, by calling them on 0800 697 296 or following the procedure set out on the NZQA website: nzqa.govt.nz
